

Indian River Council of Community Services Welcomes Dana Ryder, Pelican Landing Community Relations Director, to the Council Board of Directors

VERO BEACH, FL, December 29, 2015 – Watercrest Senior Living Group is pleased to announce that Dana Ryder, Community Relations Director of Pelican Landing Assisted Living and Memory Care Community, has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors for the Indian River Council of Community Services.

The Council of Community Services is a volunteer, non-profit organization of community service providers establishing opportunities for individuals and organizations to share information and educate members on available services in Indian River County. With over fifty members, the Council is well known for its outreach and charitable giving efforts.

“Supporting the community through interaction and involvement with our community business partners is a great way for all of us to give something back to Indian River County,” says Ryder. To learn more about the Council of Community Services or to become a member, please visit the website at indianriverccs.org.

Ryder joined Pelican Landing Assisted Living and Memory Care as the Community Relations Director in October 2015 and brings established community connections and an intrinsic drive to serve others. The community is scheduled to open in Spring 2016 and will offer 63 assisted living and 26 memory care apartments with gracious accommodations and outstanding care ideally located in the heart of Sebastian.

Watercrest Senior Living Group specializes in the development and operations management of assisted living and memory care communities.
